

Kristin Anderson

Kristin Anderson is the Associate Vice President (Community Engagement) at the University of Calgary. She is responsible for building meaningful partnerships to heighten the University's reputation locally, nationally and globally. Prior to joining UCalgary, she was a Senior Vice President in one of Canada's largest public affairs firms, providing senior strategic counsel and guidance to clients across all sectors of the economy. She has also worked in Stephen Harper's Official Opposition office in Ottawa and for Nortel Networks in the United Kingdom. Kristin is passionate about community building and sits on the Board of Directors for the Calgary International Film Festival and the Carya Society of Calgary. Kristin is a UCalgary alum.