

G. Kent Fellows is a research associate at The School of Public Policy, University of Calgary. His research is focused in the areas of Industrial Organization, Regulatory Economics and Regional Economics, often with a focus on energy and environmental topics. Kent is the Associate Program Director of The School of Public Policy's Canadian Northern Corridor research program. He has provided testimony to the Senate of Canada on the topic of National Transportation Corridors and is currently a member of the European Court of Auditors Expert Panel Review on large transport projects international benchmarking.