Dwight Duncan, MBA, JD(Hons.)

Senior Advisor Investor Relations Canada
Bernstein, Litowitz, Berger and Grossman LLP (BLB&G).

Dwight Duncan has had a distinguished career in both the public and private sectors.

He currently serves as Senior Advisor Investor Relations Canada, for the New York based law firm Bernstein, Litowitz, Berger and Grossman LLP (BLB&G).

Prior to joining BLB&G this year, Mr. Duncan was a trusted Strategic Business Advisor with McMillan LLP and McMillan Vantage where he provided strategic business and public policy advice to a variety of clients across Canada.

Prior to joining McMillan in 2013 Mr. Duncan had a distinguished 24-year career in the Ontario Legislature.

As a Member of Provincial Parliament, he served as Deputy Premier, Minister of Finance, Chair of Management Board, Chair of Cabinet, Minister of Energy, Government House Leader and Opposition House Leader.

He delivered six budgets, authoring major reforms to Ontario's energy, tax, pension and insurance regimes. He led Ontario's response to the recession of 2008, initiated the plan to close coal fired energy generation in the province, created the HST, and reduced both personal and corporate taxes.

During his time in government, he had political responsibility and legislative reporting accountability for the Ontario Securities Commission (OSC), the Ontario Energy Board (OEB), and the Financial Services Commission of Ontario (FSCO).

Mr. Duncan believes in giving back. He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Global Risk Institute, a Senior Fellow at the C.D. Howe Institute, a Governor of the MS Society of Canada and an Executive-in-Residence at the Odette School of Business at the University of Windsor.

He is a past member of the Boards of The Churchill Society for the Advancement of Parliamentary Democracy, the MS Society's Scientific Research Foundation, and the Windsor

Detroit Bridge Authority, a Crown Corporation tasked with overseeing the construction of the new Gordie Howe International Bridge.

Finally, he has served on a number of corporate boards including Travelers Canada where he served as Chair of the Audit Committee

Mr. Duncan has a degree in economics from McGill University. In addition, he has degrees from the University of Windsor in economics, commerce and an MBA. He was also awarded an Honorary Doctor of Laws degree from the University of Windsor.
