

Canada's Productivity Summit

Driving Investment for Economic Growth and Prosperity

October 16-17, 2024 • Calgary, AB

School of Public Policy

Joseph Marchand

Professor, Department of Economics
University of Alberta

Joseph Marchand is a Professor of Economics within the Department of Economics at the University of Alberta in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. He serves as Director of the Alberta Centre for Labour Market Research (ACLMR) and as Co-Director of the Institute for Public Economics (IPE).

Professor Marchand is best known for his research and teaching of labour economics, such as on aging, energy booms and busts, minimum wages, and mortality. His goal is to enhance the understanding of labour markets through greater access to higher quality information for the most people.

Joseph has degrees from Rutgers University (BA), New York University (MA), and Syracuse University (PhD). He has held research positions at Princeton University, Columbia University, and Syracuse University, and visiting positions at the University of Wisconsin Madison, University of Toronto, and the London School of Economics and Political Science.

Back to Event Page

[Purchase Conference
Tickets](#)