Jess Sinclair

Director, Government Affairs (Prairies)
Council of Canadian Innovators

Jess Sinclair is Director of Government Affairs for the prairie region with the Council, of Canadian Innovators – Canada's business council for domestic scale-up tech companies. She leads the Council's Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba work, including advocacy and ecosystem capacity-building.

Prior to joining CCI, Jess worked in a variety of roles in the Alberta government, including chief of staff roles under two ministries and issues management in the Office of the Premier.

She can often be found exploring Edmonton's river valley with her partner, kiddo, and dog.
