Ryan Greer

Vice President, Public Affairs and National Policy Canadian Manufacturers and Exporters

Ryan is Vice President, Public Affairs and National Policy with Canadian Manufacturers and Exporters (CME). He has spent nearly two decades working in senior public policy roles in Ottawa, developing a sophisticated understanding of federal policy frameworks and the political forces shaping them.

Before joining CME, Ryan was a senior director at Hill and Knowlton Strategies where he supported organizations from across Canada on corporate advisory and communications, thought leadership and public affairs strategies. Prior to that Ryan was a senior director at the Canadian Chamber of Commerce where he worked with companies from across Canada on policy development and advocacy in areas including transportation, infrastructure, supply chains, procurement, regulatory burden and interprovincial trade. Earlier in his career Ryan spent 10 years working for the federal government holding senior policy positions for the Ministers of Public Works and Government Services, Human Resources and Skills Development, and Small Business and Tourism.
