

Shawn McDonald is a Métis man from Lac la Biche, Alberta. He is the President of the Resource One Aboriginal Business Association and the owner of Black Scorpion Contracting Ltd. Black Scorpion is 100% Métis owned, and has been operating in the Lac La Biche, Conklin and the North Eastern Alberta area f since 1997.

During this time the company has evolved to serve the area with winch and lowbed services, gravel trucks equipped for regular aggregate hauling, transport, snow removal and dust control, as well as providing quality plant operators for the natural gas industry. The company is a proud sponsor of local charities and various events, and gives preference to hiring local employees and subcontractors.